

Sports & Entertainment Services Guide

Murfett Legal offers clients the unique skills and experience of a team with a background in commercial law to provide clients with practical, commercial and technical advice on all aspects of sports and entertainment law.

We provide tailored advice to athletes and entertainers at all levels as well as ongoing assistance to the bodies that govern them.

Murfett Legal aims to provide clients with clear and practical legal strategies to achieve the best possible outcome. The specialist team at Murfett Legal will work alongside you to understand your legal needs and to achieve excellent results not only for your immediate legal issues, but also your long term legal needs.

With our expertise and experience, we can provide the following services:

- Contract advice and negotiations
- Sponsorship, merchandising and licensing
- Intellectual property
- Estate planning and asset protection
- Property and development
- Corporate governance and constitutions
- Tax and superannuation advice
- Disciplinary matters
- Employment and workplace relations
- Dispute resolution
- Litigation

Murfett Legal represents a wide variety of Australian and international clients including sporting and entertainment personalities, local, State and national clubs and businesses of governing bodies.

If you would like more information, please contact us on +61 8 9388 3100 or visit our website.

